Need ideas on how to spend your Day of Service this year?
 Use the chart below to brainstorm ways you can help in your community!
 For more ideas, visit www.kappaalphatheta.org/events/day-of-service!

Bettie Locke – The Leader

- ◊ Host a clothing swap for everyone on your college campus
- ◊ Volunteer at a women's shelter
- ◊ Attend (or even host!) a run/walk event for an important cause
- ◊ Work with a therapy dog/animal organization to make visits in your local area

Alice Allen – The Learner

- ◊ Tutor students after school
- ◊ Help children learn to read by volunteering for a local library or literacy program
- ◊ Volunteer at a local hospital
- ◊ Help at a community garden

Hannah Fitch Shaw – The Motivator

- ◊ Volunteer for a local organization to help people register to vote
- ◊ Take a group to a food pantry to volunteer together
- ◊ Lead activities at a care facility for seniors
- ◊ Drive seniors around your community (this can be through an organization or people you know!)

Bettie Tipton – The Doer

- ◊ Cook a meal at a local shelter or at an organization that serves people with food insecurity
- ◊ Rake leaves for an elderly neighbor
- ◊ Volunteer at an animal shelter
- ◊ Help a local non-profit with administrative tasks

If every single Theta completed some act of service, no matter how big or small, the world would be a kinder, happier, and more loving place.
