

RHO, of Kappa Alpha Theta, was established on April seventh, 1887, at the University of Nebraska, Lincoln, with five charter members, to whom the pledge was given by a delegate from Kappa.

The Charter was kept by the Chapter until the year 1891, when it was thought best to return it. The older members were all leaving the University, and there seemed to them to be no material quite worthy of Theta to continue the Chapter.