

PSI of Kappa Alpha Theta was established at the University of Wisconsin, Madison, on May twenty-ninth, 1890, with nine charter members.

Early in the following year the Chapter moved into the Lodge which it still occupies. Before the year was over they had succeeded in furnishing the Lodge completely, and now feel that, in spite of many obstacles which at the time seemed almost insurmountable, they have proved that a chapter house can be made a success.