UNIVERSITY SONG

ALMA MATER

In the heart of dear old Dixie,
Where the sun doth shine,
There is where our hearts are turning,
Round old Emory's shrine.

Chorus

We will ever sing thy praises,
Sons and daughters true;
Hail thee now, our Alma Mater
Hail the Gold and Blue.
Tho' the years around us gather,
Crowned with love and cheer,
Still the memory of old Emory,
Grows to us more dear.

EMORY UNIVERSITY

SOCIAL CLUBS

INTERCLUB COUNCIL

The Interclub Council, the coordinating body of the Emory Women's Social Clubs, was founded in 1954. It has developed into a strong governing body through which the clubs can successfully discuss, organize and initiate functions and policies.

Each year the I. C. C. sponsors a Parents' Day Luncheon at the I. C. C. House, a Sadie Hawkins Race, and an Interclub Sing.

Its colors are royal purple and garnet red, symbolized in the purple violet and the red rose. It strives to foster cooperation and understanding among the clubs.

As the clubs become national sororities, so the I. C. C. will become a Panhellenic organization rooted in the Interclub Council tradition of strength through leadership, unity, and understanding.

ADELPHEAN SOCIETY

The Adelphean Society was organized on the Emory campus September 5, 1954. Their colors are blue and white; the flower is the violet.

As a service project they work in the charity ward of the Egleston Children's Hospital, and read to blind students. Annually they hold a Carnival for the Emory student body.

They are affiliated nationally with Alpha Delta Pi, which was founded at Wesleyan College in Macon, Georgia. They were pledged to their national on February 8, 1959.

The number of charter members is 44.
